Where the Roads Come Together

None of us is born the same,
 We don't know why; it's the way we came.
 Every heart beats a little differently,
 Each soul is free to find its way
 Like a river that winds its way to the sea.

For life is a journey
And there are many roads beneath the sky
And there are many good people
Who don't see eye to eye.

Not every man can sing your tune;
 From where he stands there's another view.
 With every turn we're learning more
 And perhaps we'll find
 That the walls we build are only in the mind.

Each soul is free

to find its way . . .

There are many roads to go
 And they go by many names.
 They don't all go the same way
 But they get there all the same
 And I have a feelin' that we'll meet some day
 Where the roads come together, up the way.

FAIRHAVEN HIGH

"Where the Roads Come Together" is a most appropriate theme, for many roads lie ahead for the class of 1978.

Since the beginning of time, many different roads have been built. Some are no longer here, but because of our changing world, we have many more newer roads which have been built. Your generation has more opportunities for selectivity than any generation before you. But it is wise to remember that the road you travel in the future is determined by the decisions and preparations of the present.

So along whichever road you travel, however long or short, I wish you health, happiness, and good fortune, and may we all look forward to the reunion "Where The Roads Come Together."

CAREFUL OBSERVER

We have bent our ears toward the whispers of freedom and held his awakening eyes in our hand

We are reminded to take care or tomorrow will swallow us
in ignorance

It has often left us leaning exhausted against the thought of the future

There have been times where the thought of our departure from this well coveted protection

Has made us glory in the past where the future was so far removed

And we could not even see its lingering shadow among us

And as we look backward in time to a love which clutched
at the confines of our vulnerable hearts

To familiar faces who carved out a motive and significance to our lives

To nights that clung to our memories because we never saw their end but live them still

There is a forward step which we assume

As we struggle to maintain the even pace which society demands of us

There is no need to abandon the freedom which has the taste of thickness in our blood and the stubborn iron to pursue

But there is an individual looking out from the portal of our lives

Waiting to distinguish himself and call himself victor.

*Luis Eduardo Ospina Vanegas
Colombia, South America*

Yo estoy muy contento poder participar en esta sociedad por que me da la oportunidad de conocer la vida Americana y puedo conocer a diferentes clases de personas.

Yo pienso que los Americanos son amigables y buenas personas a ustedes les gusta trabajar duro para sus cosas personales, a ustedes no les gusta perder tiempo porque el tiempo es muy importante ésta es la razón por la cual les gusta estar ocupados todo el tiempo, también, a ustedes les gusta llegar temprano a las reuniones y para mí llegar puntual, pero he aprendido a llegar puntualmente y antes de terminar me gustaria dar les gracias por todas las ayudas que me prestaron y de todas las maneras, recordare mis AMIGOS.

I am very grateful for having been able to be a part of the American society because it has given me the opportunity to experience the American way of life and to become acquainted with many different types of people.

I think Americans are friendly and really nice. They enjoy working hard for themselves. They do not like to waste time because time is very important to them. This is the reason that they always keep busy. Also, they try to be punctual at meetings or special invitations because they do not like to be late for different occasions. This was difficult for me at first, but I am getting better at being on time for my appointments. So, before ending, I would like to thank all of you for helping me adjust to the American way of life. I'll always remember you as my very good friends.

CLASS REUNION RAIDED

Fairhaven High School's Class of 1978 held their fifteenth year reunion at the American Legion Hall. All was going smoothly until, at midnight, the Fairhaven Police Department, consisting of Captain, Daniel Rezendes, Patrolmen, Jeff Lainey, Stan Palys, Kevin Ducharme and Gloria Dias, raided the gathering. The police arrested several people. Among those arrested were: Beth Hassett and Ed Weeks, for intellectual superiority, Pat Maloney for selling hot hardware, Andy Cleveland and Ann Haines for disorderly conduct, and Gary Feener and Mike Edwards for over indulgence.

Commenting on the raid, Captain Rezendes stated, "The Class of 1978 has ruined their reputation. There will never be another reunion at the American Legion."

NEWS ON TOYS

The Pre-School Toy Factory is showing that it is an equal opportunity employer. The factory has hired Gerry Daniel to test their new Top. To see that these tops can stand the wear and tear of children, Daniel is putting the Top through some grueling tests.

The corporation's officers are David Bancroft, President, Chuck Tillett, Vice-President and Cheryl Perry and Sylvia Africano, District Managers.

Bancroft commented that the company is very pleased with Daniel's conscientiousness in seeing that the Top meets the standards of the Pre-School Toy Factory.

DANCING SCHOOL OPENS

A new dancing school has been opened under the direction of Mellanie Guillotte. Mellanie herself specializes in modern dance and ballet. To assure that her students receive a well rounded dance education, Mellanie has hired 3 Assistants. Gail Labonte will specialize in gymnastics, and Rosemary Oliveira and Jo-Ann Pinard in baton twirling.

Renaud's Sports Center recently opened in the center of Fairhaven. The store is owned and operated by Ron Renaud, a former all-star athlete at Fairhaven High School. His motto is, "Whatever you want, I have; and whatever I don't have, I will get."

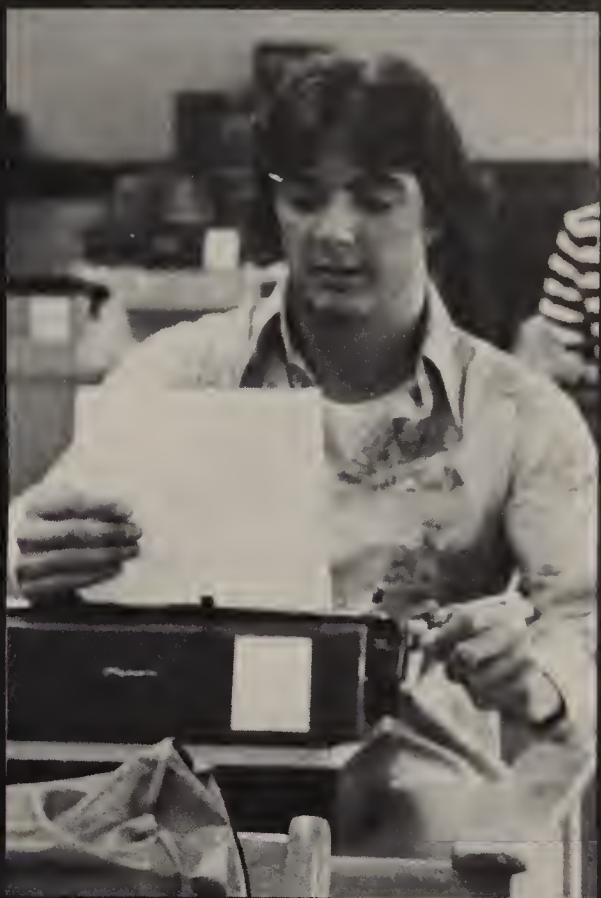

Renaud has hired some well-known salesmen to help with his business. Charles Hurley, Mike Kszystyniak, Mark Larsen, Jeff Barcellos, Mike Pimental, and Richard Amaral are all well-known in the town.

We wish Renaud success in this new business venture.

NEW CLASSES FORMED

A new course of study has been added to many of the Greater New Bedford School systems. The program combines classroom work with jobs in the community. Four members of the Distributive Education Class of 1978 are assisting with the coordination of this new program. Cheryl Rocha, Bill Brandi, Brian Fitzgerald, and Sharon Sylvia are spending a great deal of time assisting schools in implementing this new program.

The community wishes to thank them for their efforts.

THANKS . . .

The success of the Class of 1978 is due in large part to the following people:

Mr. Stanley J. Grabiec has impressed upon us the important characteristic of moral consciousness. He stresses sincerity in our future endeavors.

Mr. Carlton Albritton has shown us understanding and friendship. We thank him for his devotion to our class and to our school.

Miss Jane Martin has continually given us her support and encouragement. Her loyalty has brought pride to our class.

The yearbook staff would like to give special thanks to the following people:

Arnold Lohmann, Taylor Publishing Co. representative, who has helped us and encouraged us during very trying times.

Up With People for their assistance with our theme.

Mrs. Evelyn Martin for her continued help and patience.

Pat Mahoney for writing the class poem.

Dave Bancroft for helping us with his artwork.

Frank Mellon of Loring Studios for his assistance with our photographs.

Raymond Mitchell for permission to include his original poem in our book.

These people have helped us to find a start to the roads that lie in our future.

CROSSROADS

*For some of us the journey's ended.
Others, it has just begun:
The narrow way thus far we've travelled
Is not always to be run.*

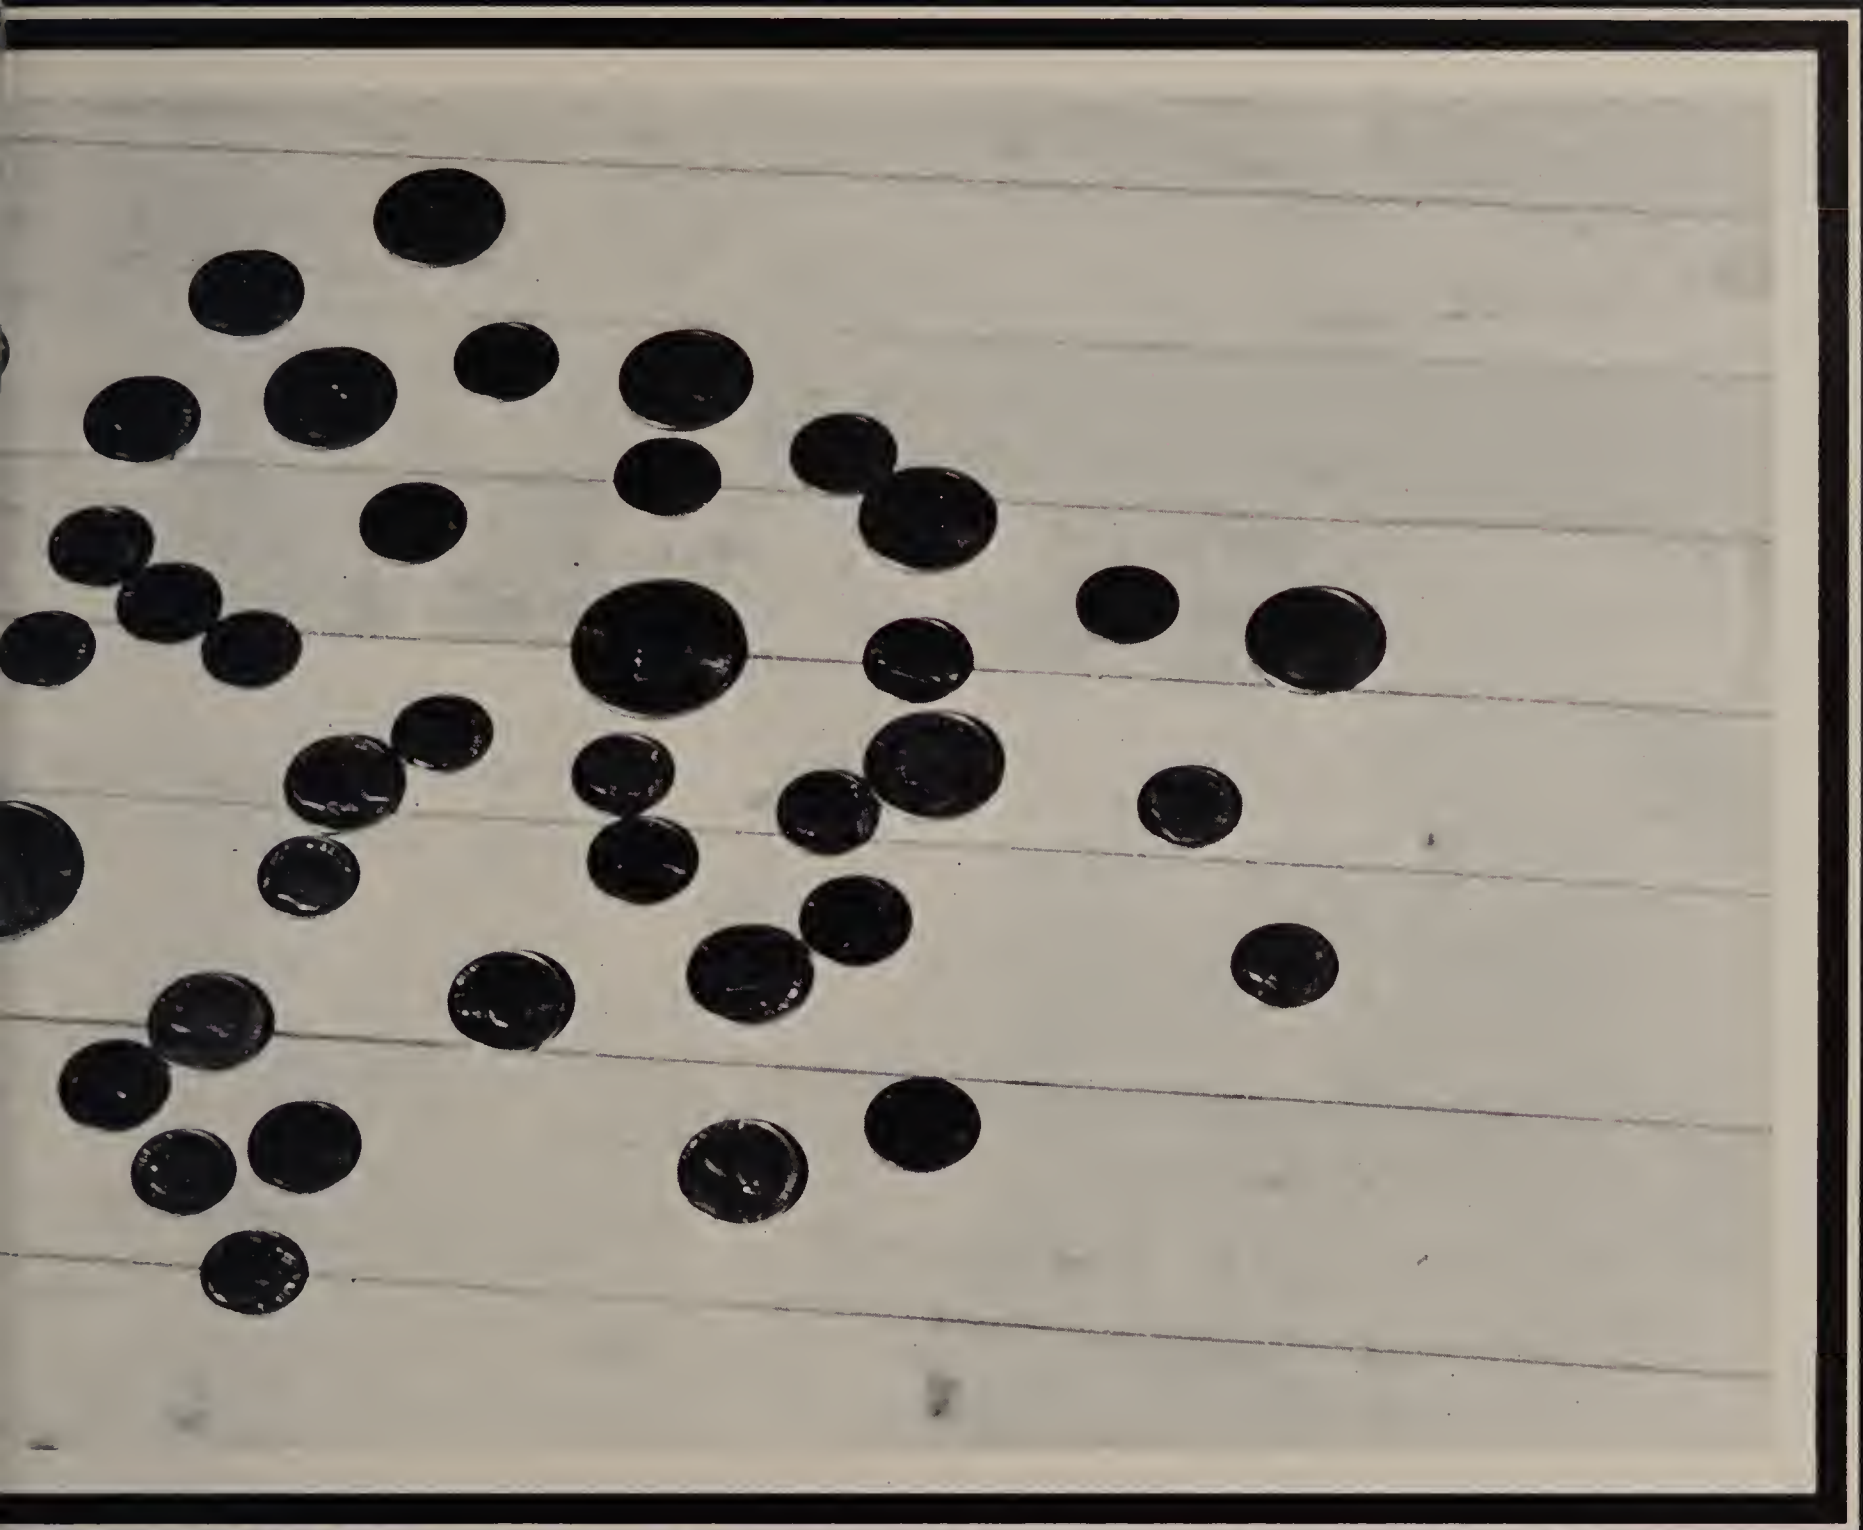

*While some may rise above life's darkness,
Some will never catch the light;
Yet ties that bind us now together
Shall still hold us to the right.*

*As we have all received freely,
So may we be free to give;
And with a will which cannot waiver
Go on learning how to live.*

Raymond Mitchell

for life
is a journey...
